...the early childhood leaders' magazine since 1978...a resource so valuable, you'll still be using it for years and years.

EXCHANGE is designed with you in mind!

Each bi-monthly issue of EXCHANGE is packed with practical articles written by many of the leading authorities in the field on issues early childhood professionals face every day...

- training staff
- working with parents
- supervising staff
- trends in the field
- marketing and promotion
- recruiting qualified staff
- budgeting and cash flow
- fundraising
- evaluation
- brain research
- role of public schools
- setting and collecting fees
- facility management
- curriculum development

EXCHANGE provides you with workable strategies, practical advice and unconditional support in carrying out the vital work you do. Valuable? 26,000 global subscribers think so, which is why over 80 percent of them save each issue for years and years.

PLUS, in every issue there is a 16-page staff training section, Beginnings Workshop, focusing on curriculum areas such as play, literacy, diversity, space design, discipline, music, and circle time.
