Victoria Carlton's

Jolly
Phonics

approach to

The Official Jolly Learning course

Did you know that children taught early literacy skills the JOLLY PHONICS way are nearly always well ahead of their chronological age level?

This workshop is for anyone or SNOs who are concerned with helping children to reach their full academic potential.

This workshop will demonstrate -

- the paramount importance of phonics teaching and recent research in this area
- the philosophy and background inherent to JOLLY PHONICS
- the components of the programme and how they combine to help children learn phonics, spelling and writing in a multi-sensory way
- how to incorporate JOLLY PHONICS into a highly effective teaching program for your education centre or your home.
- a multi-sensory method of teaching spelling and grammar that opens the door to effective writing skills reading for ALL students
- The JOLLY PHONICS and JOLLY GRAMMAR approaches to literacy will enable ALL students to read, spell and write
- This will be a fun, interactive workshop and will empower all participants to fully understand and be empowered to use this approach to help all children reach their full academic potential

By attendance at this thought-provoking and practical seminar you will learn:

- why this approach is so effective
- multisensory methods to introduce spelling and grammar concepts
- which grammatical structures to introduce and a suggested order
- practical, structured strategies to improve spelling skills, grammar and therefore written expression

Victoria Carlton

- Victoria Carlton, is the director of an organisation, THE INTERNATIONAL CENTRE FOR EXCELLENCE, and extensively uses JOLLY PHONICS to help West Australian children improve and succeed at literacy skills.
- She frequently travelled to the U.K. to meet the authors and publisher of JOLLY PHONICS and to check on current research in this area. She developed and conducted her own programs which are used with great success at her own centre in Australia.
- Victoria is convinced that JOLLY PHONICS is the most effective literacy programme available to teach literacy skills and was recently featured on the TV current affairs program, TODAY TONIGHT, to demonstrate and discuss the approach.
